

Southern Caribbean Chapter

Making project management indispensable for business results

2009 PMI SCC 5TH BIENNIAL INTERNATIONAL PROJECT MANAGEMENT CONFERENCE

LEVERAGING PROJECT MANAGEMENT IN TODAY'S ECONOMY: - INNOVATION - EFFICIENCY - PARTNERSHIPS

15th and 16th September 2009 at Center of Excellence, Macoya, Trinidad. W.I.

We are pleased to present the 21 Speakers who will deliver 24 unique presentations in 3 tracks addressing this year's conference theme "Leveraging Project Management in Today's Economy: Innovation – Efficiency – Partnerships".

We are also pleased to announce the Conference will feature two internationally acclaimed, high profile Project Management Keynote speakers; they are Gopal K Kapur and Robert K Wysocki Ph.D. These two Keynote Speakers will also deliver an additional presentation within the 3 tracks over the course of this two day Conference.

THE FOLLOWING SPEAKERS WILL PRESENT OVER THE TWO DAYS:

SANDRA BAPTISTE MBA, PMP
Resource Management: Key to Survival in an Economic Crisis

TRACI DUEZ CSAC
How to get 40% more Productivity from your Team

DAN FURLONG PMP, MBA, CPHIMS
'Prenatal' Project Care

MARK HEHL BSEE, MS MGT
Managing outsourcing Risk; and The Importance of Culture when Managing Cross Border Projects (2 presentations)

IVAN HINKSON PMP, CCC, FRICS
7 Steps to Highly Effective Planning and Scheduling of Construction Projects

AZAD HOSEIN MBA, CDP
A Framework for Establishment of a PMO in a Public or Private Sector Environment in the Caribbean

MARK KIEFFER PMP
Farming for Project Management Success – An approach and Case Study

RAOUL JOHN BSc (Hons), MSc, DIC, PMP
Portfolio Management in Turbulent Times: Strategy for Leveraging the Right Project in Today's Economy

DR. TOM JOHNS Ph.D., PE, PMP, MAPM
Emerging Earned Value Metrics (EVM) – Simplifying EVM

Southern Caribbean Chapter

Making project management indispensable for business results

2009 PMI SCC 5TH BIENNIAL INTERNATIONAL PROJECT MANAGEMENT CONFERENCE

LEVERAGING PROJECT MANAGEMENT IN TODAY'S ECONOMY: - INNOVATION - EFFICIENCY - PARTNERSHIPS

15th and 16th September 2009 at Center of Excellence, Macoya, Trinidad. W.I.

GOPAL K KAPUR

President - Center for Project Management®
Six Imperatives to Success

SAJI MADAPAT

PMP, CSSMBB, CPIM, CIERP, CMPE, MBA
Excelling in a Recession Driven Economy -
Project and Portfolio Management (PPM Solution)

MITHRA V RAMPERSAD

MBA, BEng (Hons), CEng, MICE, REng, DipFM
Cashflow Management during Project
Execution

KAMLA RAMPERSAD DE SILVA

LLB, LEC, MBA
Engaging the people side of change
for success in the public sector

WINSTON RILEY, P.E; FAPETT -

Sensitivity to Ethical Issues

PAUL SEAFORTH BSc (Eng), MBA, PMP

Adding Value to your Organization
Through Strategic Project Management

ROBIN TRACY PMP®, CBAP™

The Project Manager and Business Analyst Struggle

ROBERT K WYSOCKI Ph.D.

Agile Project Portfolio Management - A Resource
Constrained Approach

RAMCHAND RAMCHARAN BSc. (Civil Eng), MBA, PMP

Building a High Performance Project Team: The Experience
in a major Water Utility Infrastructure Renewal Programme

Southern Caribbean Chapter

Making project management indispensable for business results

JOINT PRESENTATION

W. KEITH WYLDE
President, Miami Micro Data

KEN SCHMID
Oracle Corporation

"Plans are Useless but Planning is Priceless"

TREVOR JACKSON MBA, CISA, PMP
The Value Proposition for Mergers and Acquisitions

SINGH & PERSAD
An Updated Evaluation of the Project Management Maturity in the public Sector of Trinidad & Tobago using 'Kerzner' Project Management Maturity Model

EARN
14 PDU's

Delegates attending this 2009 PMI SCC 5th Biennial International Project Management Conference will benefit from the following -

- Exposure to diverse training, Best Practices, and Global trends in Project Management
- Understanding of Organizational changes to facilitate management of projects, management of multiple projects, and the identification of issues that affect the successful completion of projects
- Key lessons learned in Project Management
- Professional Development for a fraction of the cost of a 2-day training session
- Presentations from leading International, Regional and Local presenters on key topics
- Excellent networking opportunity across diverse sectors such as - Government, Financial, Telecoms, Information Technology, Engineering, Consulting and other services both Internationally and Regionally

Don't miss this exciting opportunity to participate in the largest Project Management event in the Region. PMI SCC encourages everyone involved in the management and implementation of projects to attend this important event as the PMI SCC celebrates its 10 year anniversary. Please visit our website at www.pmiscc.org for the Conference Registration Form, or contact the Conference Secretariat by email at pmiscc@gmail.com or by telephone at (868)384 5693 for further information.

Register by 31st July to benefit from the special Early Bird rate.

Please visit www.pmiscc.org for full conference details or call the Conference Secretariat at (868) 384-5693

Energy Based, People Powered

